

The WRAG September 2012

Western Region MAG

Bristol Bike Show & Party

Once again the Bristol Bike Show was a great success, with many bikes on show scattered all around the St Nicholas Market area of Bristol.

The after Show Party held at the Saracens RFC in the evening was also a great success and made £585 with a bit more to come when the cost of the BBS tee shirts is settled.

Thanks to everyone who supported - individuals, members, clubs, overseas visitors, Mid Wilts & W&NS Groups - we had mega support this year and the BBQ sold out.

Makes all the hard work the organisers put in worthwhile.
Thanks Everyone Anne.

MAG Stands

The stand at the Ogri Rally can be considered a success, with 12 memberships taken (including 1 joint) plus 1 renewal, and a probable small club affiliating (I think in Thames Valley region not ours but they all count).

Thanks to Paul & Mid Wilts for getting the stand up and down, and to everybody who helped man it over the weekend (special mention to Tim and Sarah - the Taunton Two - who just volunteered to take over so myself and Andy Kerr could go for a wander and then seemed to stay around for most of the afternoon).

Trace

There was also a MAG stand at the Bristol Bike Show where 4 memberships were taken on the day, plus info and Roads handed out.

Well done everyone The Troll

On the same weekend as the Ogri Rally we managed to run another stand at the V.S.O.C Rally down in Weston-super-Mare, where 2 memberships were taken and that gallant knight in shining armour Bill went to the rescue of some foreign visitors who had hired a bike in Reading for their tour of the UK.

The chain was almost touching the ground! The Troll

GWR Rally

Well it's just a few days to the GWR rally and we hope you've already got your tickets, because the PayPal facility has now closed.
