

The WRAG June 2013

Tone Vale Tea Rally

Due to the high winds the rally came very close to being called off and despite the very best efforts of the wind, gusting to gale force at times, members from Weston & north Somerset MAG and Taunton MAG eventually erected the marquees for Taunton MAG's first rally. Working late into Thursday night, there was little left over to be done on the Friday, when the rally goers started rolling in.

Despite the somewhat high winds 175 folk came through the gate for the rally much to the relief of Tim and Sarah the event organisers.

On the Saturday a ride out was organised that went to Glastonbury and visited a local Cider brewery.

After which, they got back in time for the Hog roast

Weston MAG's Karen got plastered, but not quite the way she intended, as taking a fall her right ankle sustained a fracture, get well soon Karen.

It was also great to see Den ride in on her Fury after such a long time off the bike.

North Somerset MAG enjoying themselves at the tone vale tea party.

Tim & Sarah would like to say a Big thanks to Weston & North Somerset MAG, from Taunton MAG for their undeniably huge help, without which the rally wouldn't have been a success.
