Positive people

Frequently it seems there is so much doom and gloom in today's world when what we really need is more positivity. We all have friends with varying degrees of need and I hope you all have friends that glow with positivity. Those friends that, maybe to some, seem a little crazy and off the wall, the one's that cheer you no matter what your mood. They're often the people that entertain everyone when you're out together in a crowd. Positive people shine and spread their joy but do we take enough time to acknowledge them and their needs in comparison with our friends with issues? Only you know the answer to that one. Sometimes I think we can forget that these positive people are in need of our love and attentiveness, they will on occasion have off days and need a listening ear. In my experience these friends are worth the effort. I myself like to smile, I like to compliment, I think it's good manners and I have my parents to thank for that. I have met some of the most wonderfully, positive, energising people through riding and I hope you have too.

Make sure you recognise your positive friends and try to let a little of what they have rub off on you, then spread it with the rest of the world making it a better place to live in.

A Smile

A smile costs nothing, but gives much.

It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give.

It takes but a moment, but the memory of it somehow lasts forever.

None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none is so poor that he can be made rich by it.

A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in business and is the countersign of friendship.

It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad and is nature's best antidote for trouble.

Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen for it is of no value to anyone until it is given away.

Some people are too tired to give you a smile: give them yours, as none needs a smile more than he who has none to give.

MAG Awareness Day at Riders

Bristol MAG's indomitable Claire organised a MAG awareness day at Riders of Bristol.

After shanghaiing a customer and with the aid of The Troll and Anne the stand was soon up and running.

The weather was a little threatening, which may account for it being unusually quiet at Riders, but two memberships were taken on

Tone Vale Tea Rally

Taunton MAG's 4th Tone Vale Tea Rally took place down in deepest darkest Somerset. And despite the at times rather nasty weather skirting the site, the weekend stayed reasonably dry, although one or two travellers came in to the rally control somewhat bedraggled, this on top what must have been total chaos on the M5 and surrounding roads heading south down to the southwest!

As usual at the TVTP there were plenty of Cakes made by Sarah, in fact so many you were spoilt for choice.

At the bar there was real ale and cider and three bands played over the weekend.

This is an excellent little rally so make sure you go next year!

Thanks must go to Tim and Sarah and all the hardy stalwarts of Taunton MAG for their hard work organising and working on the Tone Vale Tea Rally.

Weston Bike Nights

Weston Bike Nights are now well under way, and being well attended, except for the Scooter night, which always seems to be on a wet night!

Why not get your MAG group to organise a group ride down to Weston?

It's all for a good cause!
